Jobs Australia

Darwin Skills Development Scheme is a Quality Assured Member of Jobs Australia

For the past 4 years DSDS Remote Services have focused on capacity building in remote Top End communities.

Our expertise is in assisting locally based Indigenous organisations to deliver effective Employment Services in their own community, and building the capacity of local Indigenous staff to be employed at all levels of the service and perform effectively in their job roles.

Services offered include:

On-the-job skills development training focused on tasks specific to the employment services industry, tailored to individual and organisation needs

Accredited training in Community Services Work and Employment Services (Certificate III level)

Mentoring for staff at all levels

Workforce development recommendations

Quality assurance

External management services

Training in providing employment services for people with disability
